

I am in favor of supporting VRS services. It is much better than using the tty relay services. It's more natural and much faster. I would like to see it become a 24 hour service and to have money to research and improve this service. It's an idea whose time has come.

Sincerely

Wayne Bennett